Scholarship conditions 2019

The Richard C Malmsten Memorial Foundation Scholarship at the School of Business, Economics and Law is subject to the following conditions:

A student granted the scholarship have to be admitted and accepted a study place at a Master's programme at the School of Business, Economics and Law, University of Gothenburg.

If the student is granted official leave from the study programme, the scholarship will remain valid when the studies are resumed. However, studies must be resumed within one year.

The Scholarship will be cancelled if the student decides to terminate his or her studies prematurely.

If the student is no longer required to pay tuition fee during his or her studies, he or she must notify the School of Business, Economics and Law thereof in writing.

The continuation of the scholarship is conditional upon the student passing the courses that make up the study programme.
