

Johan Häggman

- Coordinator for student health, working environment for students, equal treatment
- Supports institutions, faculties and the university
- No contact with students but contacts with student unions

Your rights

- A good working environment
- A environment free from discrimination and victimization
- Student influence
- Access to student health

Your obligations

- Be a part in the work for a good working environment
- Report to the university if you see any risks in the environment or if you have a accident

Who can help you?

- Student unions
- Student ombudsmen
- Staff at the university